

Committed to justice and the highest ethical standards, Brian Hughes throughout his career, has fought for the rights and safety of people, regardless of their ethnicity, sex, or income level. Brian has a formidable resume beginning as a FDNY firefighter and then Fire Marshal, to NYS Assistant Attorney General, NYC Inspector General, Brooklyn District Attorney Bureau Chief and culminating as a Southold Town Justice. During this time, he was an Adjunct Professor of Law and Police Science at John Jay College, part of CUNY. As a volunteer, Brian served as Justice with the East End Regional Intervention Court from 2017 to 2019 and on the Southold Ethics Board from 2007 to 2015, serving as Chair from 2010 to 2015. He continues his dedication to the equal application of the law, a cornerstone of our democracy.
